Headteacher: Ms Liz Cohen | 20 September 2024

HEADTEACHER'S NOTE

We hope you found our recent 'Meet the Teacher' event valuable, particularly in gaining insight into the upcoming academic year. As always, we will continue to keep you updated with important news and information through School Ping, our website, and this weekly newsletter.

This term, we are excited to announce that we are looking to elect a second parent governor to join the school's governing body. A letter with detailed information about the role, along with a nomination form, will be sent out with this newsletter. If you are interested in contributing to the school's future and would like to learn more about the position, please don't hesitate to contact me directly.
