

What is it? - OomParpers is a fun new brass group run by Redbridge Music Service.

When is it? - OomParpers rehearse on Saturday mornings from 9.30 —10.30am during term time.

Where is it? Rehearsals take place at the Redbridge Music Service — John Savage Centre, Fencepiece Road, Hainault, Essex, IG6 2NB.

Who is it for? OomParpers is for young beginner brass players who want to play fun and exciting music and improve their instrumental skills.

How do I join? Just turn up! 9.30am on a Saturday morning. We can then give you further details about how to become a regular member.

Do I need an instrument? Ideally yes, but don't worry, we can organise instrument hire once you attend your first rehearsal.

How much does it cost? - It costs £30 a term to become a member of OomParpers.

What about the instrument? Instrument Hire costs £20 a term.

Special starting offer — For 2017-18 only, we are offering instrument hire and club membership for £45 That's less than £1.50 a week!

Not sure it's for you? - Come and try it for a couple of weeks for free and see!

How do I get more information? - Email our Head of Brass - Chris Wilcox at: Chris.Wilcox@visionrcl.org.uk
